

Tickets, passport, money...

These are the essentials but what other information do you need to fly through Gatwick Airport?

June 2006

Live flight information, directions, maps, useful telephone numbers, how to get there, where to park and how much duty free can you bring back? What business facilities are available? Can I connect to the internet? What is the wheel chair access situation?

All this information and more including important phone numbers, general travel advice, where to stay locally, taxis, car rental, airport lounges can all be found on the brand new web site GatwickInformation.co.uk one of a series of 23 new airport information web sites.

Easy to find, relevant and useful information about the UK airports is becoming essential as air travel becomes more popular all the time. Nearly 27% more passengers were handled by UK airports in 2005 than 2004 and this trend is set to continue.

Check this site out. Built by travel enthusiasts for people like you and me they have collected together a wealth of useful and relevant information for anyone travelling through Gatwick.

No one needs to be delayed before check-in by getting lost or not knowing some vital piece of information and this web site can really help answer all your pre flight questions.

GatwickInformation.co.uk is a great resource not just for travellers but also for anyone meeting or dropping off a friend, family member or colleague who is travelling through Gatwick Airport.

How to get there? What is the parking and pickup/drop off situation? Which terminal? can all be answered quickly and easily via the comprehensive and powerful search facility built into each page.

GatwickInformation.co.uk is one web site in an initial series of 23 covering information, help and advice, and all sorts of useful phone numbers and links for the busiest airports in the UK including, Aberdeen, Belfast, Birmingham, Blackpool, Bristol, Cardiff, East Midlands, Edinburgh, Gatwick, Glasgow, Glasgow Prestwick, Heathrow, Humberside, Leeds Bradford, Liverpool John Lennon, London City, Manchester, Newcastle, Sheffield Robin Hood, Southampton, Stanstead and Teesside Durham Valley.

So if you are going to one of these airports soon, visit GatwickInformation.co.uk – where you will find links to all these airports – don't get lost, don't forget anything and don't miss your flight. Find all the information you need to know in one place before you set off.
