

Help-Me-Park boost St Barnabas 1st Prize

Meet and Greet Airport Parking to Complement St Barnabas Hospice Winter Fayre Raffle

November 2005

Valet meet and greet airport parking Company, Help-Me-Park, is offering the lucky St Barnabas 1st Prize Holiday Raffle Winner, the ultimate hassle-free start – and finish – to their prize, with one week's free parking from Gatwick North or South Terminals. No bus transfers, no lugging heavy bags, no juggling of children, no queues... just pure parking luxury!

The stress-free meet and greet airport parking will top off the main raffle prize at the St Barnabas Winter Fayre, which will take place at the Hospice in Worthing on Saturday 26th November 2005. The parking complements the other 1st prize elements which include £200 holiday vouchers, use of the executive airport lounge with Champagne on arrival, a suitcase and passport holders.

"St Barnabas Hospice is a charity providing high quality specialist care, both within the Hospice, and in the comfort of patients' homes." commented Hatty Hall, St Barnabas Hospice Event Organiser. "Only 15% of St Barnabas' annual running costs are funded by the state, and with £4.25 Million needed to cover this year's operational running costs, Help-Me-Park's valuable contribution to the Winter Fayre Raffle will help us to raise as much as possible."

For the opportunity to win this fantastic prize, whilst taking part in an extremely popular community fund-raising event, please visit the St Barnabas Hospice Winter Fayre on 26th November 2005. Alternatively, raffle tickets will be on sale in all St Barnabas Hospice shops, which are located in Littlehampton, Wick, Rustington, Ferring, Worthing, Durrington, Lancing, Southwick, Steyning, Storrington and Storrington Mill.
